

CRASH & RIDE

STORM

TEARS WILL DRY

There's a playground on my mind
This is the first time I have set my eyes blind
Chains of the fear, and I'm not ready to hear
All the time I've been daydreaming

Answers are not sold for free
There is always at least one unpaid fee
When out of hope, you just hang into the rope
Tie the chains and let go
Run away far away!

Refr:

Up-down, look around, sour words are pouring
Lower to the ground, enjoy the soaring
Higher into the clouds you're keeping
In your embrace
Up-down, turn around, nobody to see there
Higher into the skies, hear out the whisper
Lower, into the soil you're turning
Into our graves

In mid-air we are all floating
Doubt is the price we have to all believe in Swing or the slide, you are ready for a ride
Time to fly, then let go
Run away far away!

Refr

Let's stop the swing, do not ruin everything in your life
Is this worth the strife?
When you cherish your fears, you will burst out in tears
Let you cry 'cause these tears will dry if you try
If you try

FAKE LIFE

Caught in the cobweb
Lead your fake life
Change your identity
And flow with the tide
Plant the bits and feed the bytes
Entangle in lies
No one will care about
Who you really are

That this life has been faked

WHITE LIES

My life's been a mess
I crave for what I can't possess
Have feelings that I can never share
Hiding deep

Masking the facts
In a play where nobody acts
To dream I just no longer dare

I wanna cry, fly in the sky
From the pile of all these lies
I wanna see where I'll be
If I quit the fantasy?

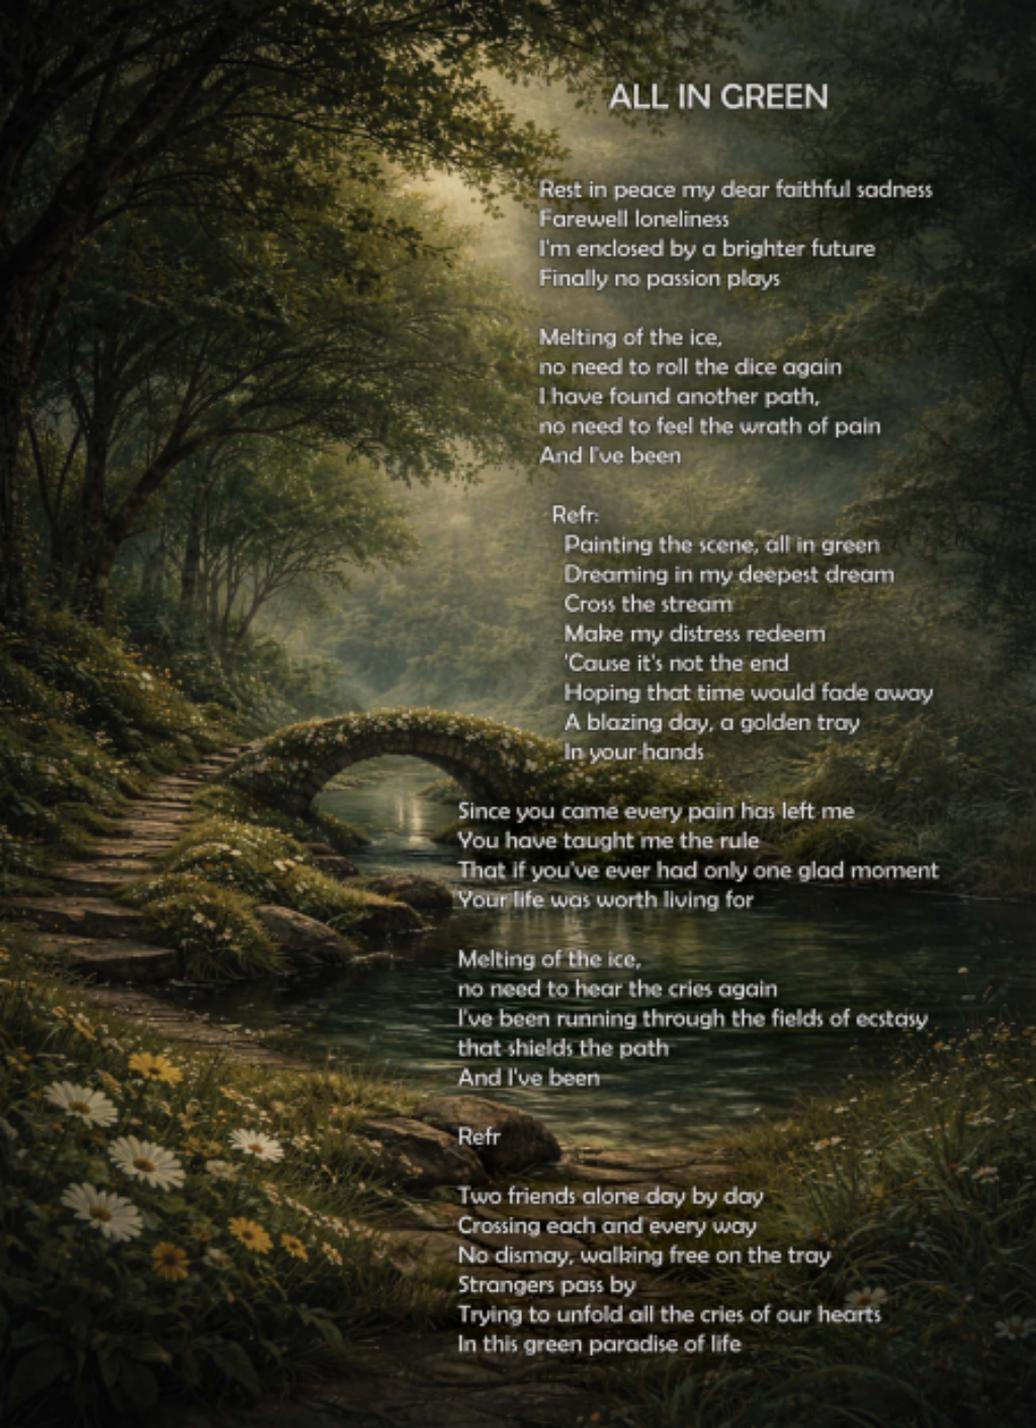

Refr:

Don't you see, I can't be free
Every day I wanna be somebody else but me
I should flee from my made up destiny
When I open my eyes
I need to come to realise
These white lies are feeding your despise

The curtains've been drawn
On the stage I feel so alone
The play has just come to an end
Deadly silence
I've paid my dues
I had to see the ghastly truth
These lies I should no more defend

I wanna fly, high in the sky
To escape the pile of lies
I wanna see where I'll be
If I join reality

Refr

ALL IN GREEN

Rest in peace my dear faithful sadness
Farewell loneliness
I'm enclosed by a brighter future
Finally no passion plays

Melting of the ice,
no need to roll the dice again
I have found another path, no need to feel the wrath of pain
And I've been

Refr:

Painting the scene, all in green
Dreaming in my deepest dream
Cross the stream
Make my distress redeem
'Cause it's not the end
Hoping that time would fade away
A blazing day, a golden tray
In your hands

Since you came every pain has left me
You have taught me the rule
That if you've ever had only one glad moment
Your life was worth living for

Melting of the ice,
no need to hear the cries again
I've been running through the fields of ecstasy that shields the path
And I've been

Refr

Two friends alone day by day
Crossing each and every way
No dismay, walking free on the tray
Strangers pass by Trying to unfold all the cries of our hearts
In this green paradise of life

SORROW AND GREED

Anger and pain
The cage trapped your brain
Drunk street with no end
You cannot comprehend
All the things you can make
The risk you dare not take

Bruise on his face
The mark of your hands
You turned into a mace
And cannot feel disgrace
With the darkness in your head
You don't see

Refr:
There are tears in his eyes
'Cause you don't realise
The knife in his heart is your pain in disguise
And the hatred you feed
Is the last thing you need
Destroy your sorrow and greed

Loud scream in the night
The nightmare in which he can't win the fight
You took away the light
All the thoughts you can bear
Causing despair

Refr

"Father, Why does this have to happen?
How could you not see who I am?
I need to be protected from this violent world,
You should be my guardian... not the one to destroy me. The rain of my eyes reflect the way of your teaching marked with pain, anger and the love I used to feed for you."

Open the cage, let me write one more page
Facing the meaninglessness of your rage

HERO

I used to be in a false fantasy
Where all my deeds were needed
All those days now seem like memories
On the edge of the blade I will have to fade
In a dark forgotten place of disgrace
I will fall in the shade a silent serenade

I saved one last life
Who will save mine?
In the deep again I wanna hear them speaking
A slave can turn into a true king
I hear my own song

Refr 1:

I was a hero
Needed only to save the day
With my power I never owned
But I still know
One day everyone will fail me
And it's time to go

After some time deep oblivion
Is what you get from people
You get dressed in the name of Anonymous
When you're tied by the chain
All that will remain
Is what you carve into the hall of your fame
Without your family name
The last charity game

No sign in my sky
Can't hear them cry
In the dark again I wanna hear the silence
Hear the beat of the cadence
While I sing my song

Refr 2:

I was a hero
Needed only to save the day
With my power I never owned
But I still know
One day everyone will fail me
And it's time to go

Refr 3:

He was a hero
Needed only to turn away
From his power we never knew
But we still hope
In the end he will not go away
When it's time to go

LONELY FLOWER

Lonely flower, dry and sour in the wild
Ruined by time, forsaken only child
And the wind never blows
And no one knows
If the rain raised the stream
It has fulfilled its dream

There's no more shining, the roots are drying
Someone stole the seeds
These are the final moments of the torments
Killed by weeds

Where is the water, where is the answer?
Who will explain these things to me?
There is no one who could save me
Will I ever be free?

Bring the shears, dry the tears from my face
Cut the leaves down, let me die with disgrace
In the sand of time, I can hear the chime
Of your sound buried in ground
It's the last thing I found

There's no more crying, the hope is dying
Someone stole the can
This is the final hour of this flower
Ruined again

||: Where is the water, where is the answer?
Who will explain these things to me?
There is no one who could save me
Will I ever be free?
The rain isn't pouring, clouds are dying
How would I ever reach the sky?
Bring me the water, my life's getting shorter
I do not want to die :||

Under blue sky, the flower will die

I'M ALL ALONE

Refr:

Everywhere I go
All the fountains are so very empty
I grab your left hand so as to pretend I defend thee

Walking alone on this path
Lonely soul on its way
Chasing its prey
Hope to see a brand new day of grey (of)
Yesterday

Deep darkness surrounding me
I have started to fear
Where is the light?
Fight against my own sense is just Pretence

Where do I go?
What if I don't know?
Who is the one to tell?

Refr

There used to be certain times
When I wanted to flee
From destiny
Time to give my life a try and see

No one is there, they don't care
They don't even bother
I'm all alone
No one is to hold my hand, no one's
My brother

Where do I go?
What if I don't know?
Where is the one to tell?

THE ANGEL WILL REMAIN

The leaves have fallen and the old man
Reads through his memories
Written pages of the ages
With untold stories
My old days are screaming
When I'm dreaming
Unearthly images
But light has killed the darkened fields
And rebuilt the bridges

A playground in the sunlight
No more need to fight
A call to wait and it's never too late
Embrace that means the fate

Refr:

In the strife you came and change my life like an Old angel you erased my vice Errant soul I had been and seen
Yesterday as a bad dream but Oh, the angel will remain and Untie the chains

There's a saying, when we're praying
Truth is not good enough
When facing the mirror, you find the error
You are said to have done
But your voice surrounds me, making it easy
Shadows flee from your light
Caress the hours which are ours
With you I'll win the fight

An early meeting at the subway
Can gild one day
Those half hours raise the powers
And nothing's needed to say

Refr

Being alone one day
Untied chains shining old and grey
Bruise on my face again
Understanding the Story of the pain

3x

You'll never have to say thank you
I'll never let you...
I never let you down

INDULJ EL

Rég volt ami szép volt
Egy emlék a sárban
Csak az érzés ami megmarad
Egy pezsgőspohárban
Minden ami körbezár
Egy álom csupán
Vágyni a vágytalant egy üres délután

Refr 1:

Indulj el amerre a szél
Hisz a köhíd mely átvezet
Csak hozzád beszél
Itt az új nap hol felragyog a fény
Születőben egy újabb remény

Édes az a pillanat
Ami egyből elbűvöl
Csak elévül az a gondolat
Hogy mindent meggyűlöl
Az úton jön a végtelen
Egy megújult esély
Mindaz mi börtönöd volt
Többé nem veszély

Refr 1 x 2

Rég volt ami szép volt
Na de nem számít már
Hisz az úton amely körbezár
Egy új élet rád vár
A börtön ami fogva tart
Most lángokban áll
Az üres baljós délután rád többé nem talál

Refr 2

Indulj el amerre a szél
Hisz a köhíd mely átvezet
Csak tehozzád beszél
Itt az új nap hol felragyog a fény
Ahol vár rád a megújult remény

STONE UNTURNED

You swam in the sea of the tears I cried
Bathed in the lake of our mourning
Laughed at the pain every time I tried
Cut off the strings, now I'm falling

But now it's my time to shine
Take what is rightfully mine
Wipe off the canvas, open the door
Never look at the past anymore

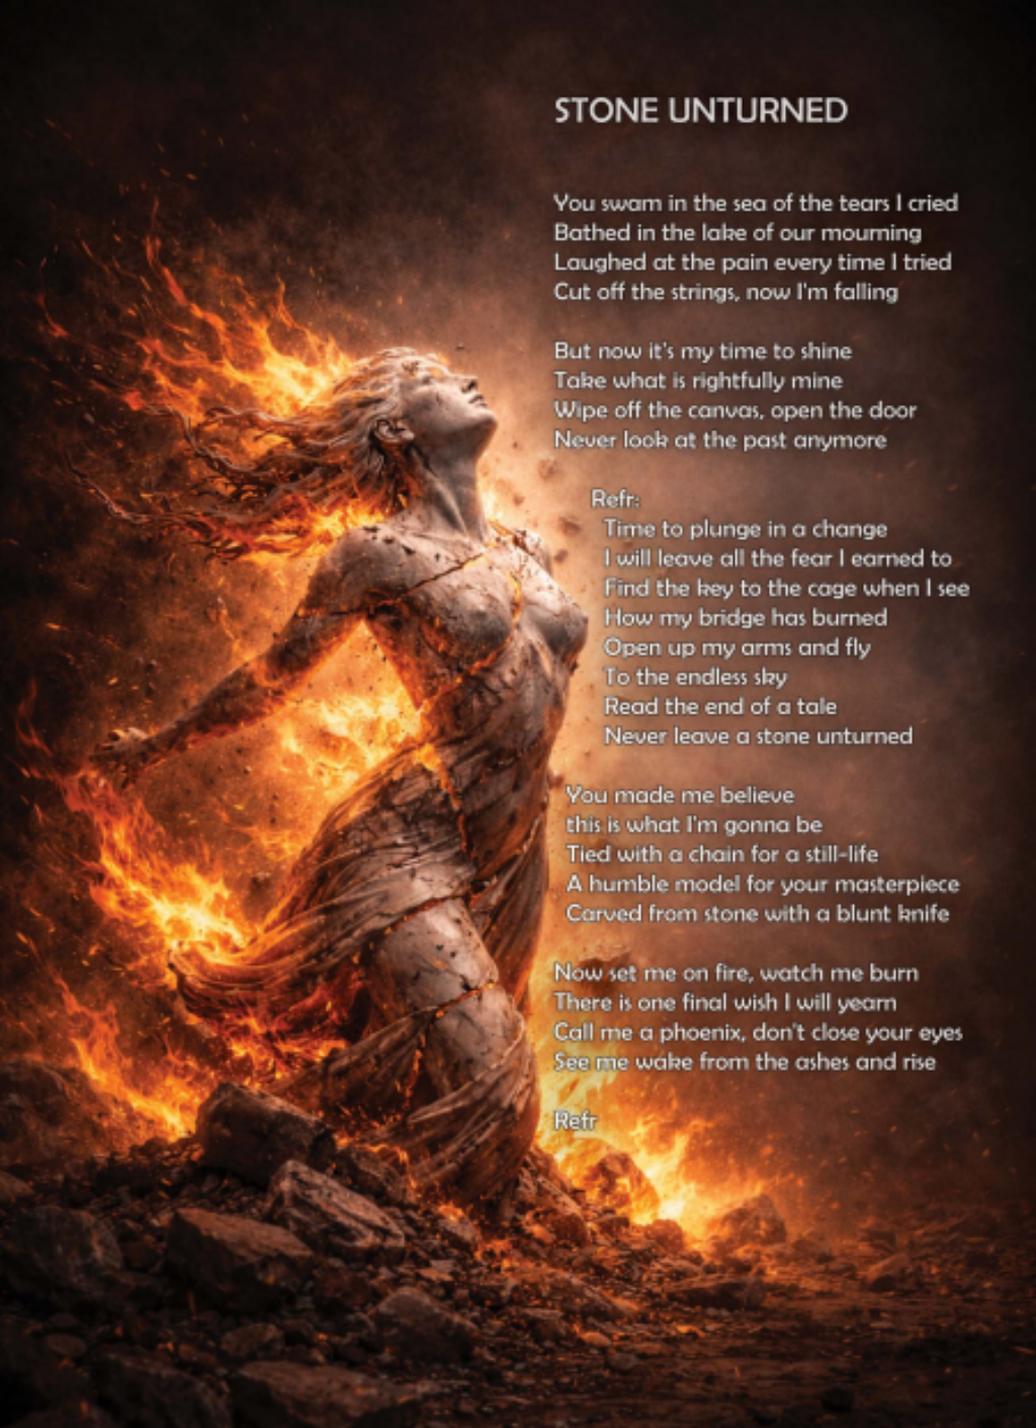

Refr:

Time to plunge in a change
I will leave all the fear I earned to Find the key to the cage when I see
How my bridge has burned
Open up my arms and fly
To the endless sky
Read the end of a tale
Never leave a stone unturned

You made me believe this is what I'm gonna be Tied with a chain for a still-life
A humble model for your masterpiece
Carved from stone with a blunt knife

Now set me on fire, watch me burn
There is one final wish I will yearn
Call me a phoenix, don't close your eyes
See me wake from the ashes and rise

Refr

VICELESS HEARTS

Flawless start, a blast from the past
It is hard to believe
Fight is a thing we didn't need
Your words were full of love
Your touch looked for mine
Ignoring each other's faults
After all we are not so divine

Calm before the storm
Good times turned black
No one's perfect for sure
Just you and me on the battlefield
Miracle had gone
We closed our eyes to deny and turned our backs to the mistakes what we had done

The truth is rotting under the lies
It would be better without any freaking words
I'll be eternal king and you are my Queen

Refr 1:

Viceless hearts, cast into flames
Every day we have to fight (against your faults)
I've never made a mistake, there's no doubt you have
Crashed my kingdom

I'm suffering (every day), leave me alone
Still loving you, set me free (from this maze)

Looking for an exit without any direction
Irrevocable denial, spread like infection

The truth is rotting under the lies
We hoped it's better without any freaking words
I stay a peaceful King, and you are perfect Queen

Refr 2:

Viceless hearts, cast into flames
Every day we have to fight (against my faults)
Have I ever made a mistake,
I'm not sure anymore
Step by step I lose my crown ... Don't run!

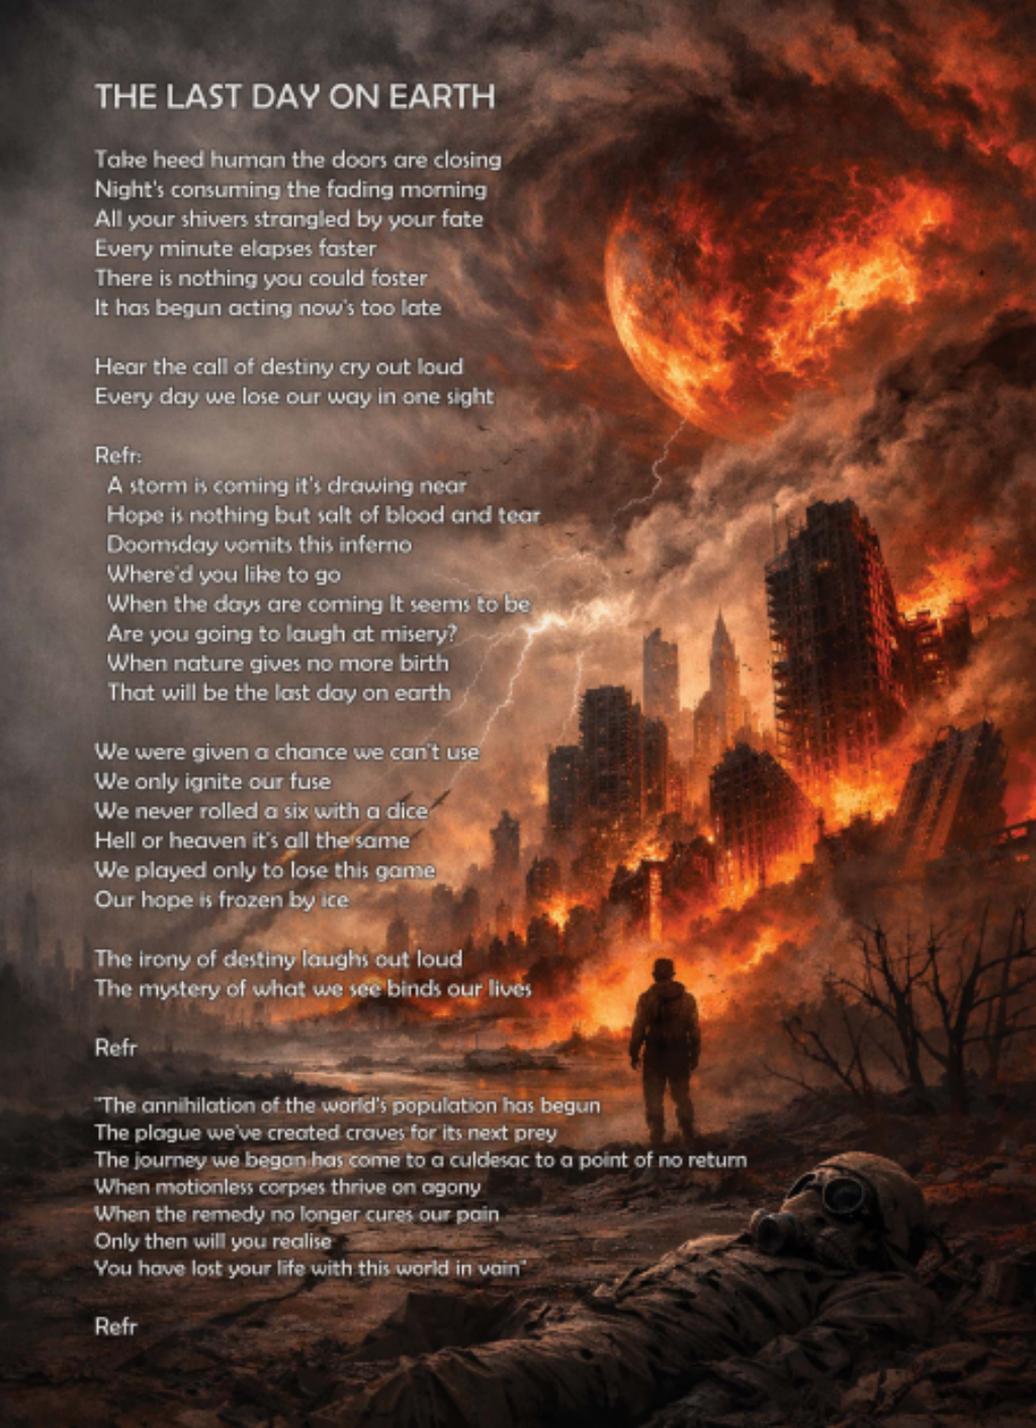

Refr 3:

Viceless hearts, cast into flames
Now I know we could win
(against our faults)
Time to solve every mistake, this way
We reign! (against our faults)

Refr 4:

Viceless hearts, cast into flames
Now I know we could win
(against our faults)
Time to solve every mistake, this way
In our kingdom we reign, reign!

THE LAST DAY ON EARTH

A dramatic, apocalyptic scene of a city in flames under a fiery, glowing moon. A lone figure stands in the distance, and a body lies in the foreground.

Take heed human the doors are closing
Night's consuming the fading morning
All your shivers strangled by your fate
Every minute elapses faster
There is nothing you could foster
It has begun acting now's too late

Hear the call of destiny cry out loud
Every day we lose our way in one sight

Refr:

A storm is coming it's drawing near Hope is nothing but salt of blood and tear
Doomsday vomits this inferno
Where'd you like to go
When the days are coming it seems to be
Are you going to laugh at misery?
When nature gives no more birth
That will be the last day on earth

We were given a chance we can't use
We only ignite our fuse
We never rolled a six with a dice
Hell or heaven it's all the same
We played only to lose this game
Our hope is frozen by ice

The irony of destiny laughs out loud
The mystery of what we see binds our lives

Refr

"The annihilation of the world's population has begun
The plague we've created craves for its next prey
The journey we began has come to a culdesac to a point of no return
When motionless corpses thrive on agony
When the remedy no longer cures our pain
Only then will you realise
You have lost your life with this world in vain"
